Taylor Hammond, Hughes' Slayer, Had Been in Asylum for 19 Years, Sons Say.

As plans were being made for the burial of his victim, the slain "unidentified prowler" who shot and killed County Policeman Bethel L. Hughes in a gun duel near Buckhead early Tuesday morning Wednesday was identified as Taylor Hammond, been in the state hospital 19 years, escaping six months ago, after cunningly making his own key to the gate of the institution.

AS ESCAPED LUNATIC The elder Hammond, the boys said, had visited his family several times since gaining his freedom and had convinced them of his sanity. The boys said they knew little of their father's wanderings when away from his former home.

Hammond was 52 years old, the father of six sons and a daughter, all of whom are living. He was shot and killed by Mr. Hughes' partner, County Policeman A. A. Stovall, after fatally wounding the former.

The funeral of Policeman Hughes will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon was identified as Taylor Hammond, an escaped maniac from the state hospital at Milledgeville.

Hammond, formerly a farmer near Cumming, was identified at the undertaking parlors of Hárry G. Poole by his sons, Ermon and Toy, of Simsville. Their father, the boys said, had

Southern-Made BRICK

There's no finer brick, in color, texture and quality, than that produced right here in the Southeast. And because it is produced ocally, prices of brick here are lower than anywhere else in the United States. "Low cost" will be an outstanding reason for the preference for brick in this year's spring building program. Be sure to investigate this important factor if you're planning to build or remodel.

"Our information from West Virginia and the fact that the two exconvicts have been identified leads me to believe that after six futile days of relentless searching we are art the six futile facts. on the trail of the bandit gang at last," Chief Poole said. "We have telegraphed this information to the police of Georgia and Florida cities and hope for arrests within a few days."

and hope for arrests within a few days."

Credence was given the theory of Chief Poole by the announcement at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., that the police of that city had arrested Tuesday a man giving his name as Julian Lieble, Lieble was one of the quartet which fled Charleston a week ago, the day before the robbery. The Fort Lauderdale police also announced that when Lieble was arrested two men who were with him in a motor car made their escape. These two men are believed to have been Adrin and Dana Bias, who also are from West Virginia and broke jail at Charleston. The fourth member of the jailbreak gang, W. R. Proctor, is believed to have parted company with his pals somewhere near Atlanta, as the sheriff at Perry, Ga., reported Wednesday that Tuesday he had found an overcoat bearing Proctor's name after several barrelegia had been committed in coat bearing Proctor's name after several burglaries had been committed in that section in the last few days. "The indications are that there were six men in the bank robbery here," Chief Poole said. "It looks like they separated into sets of three men each immediately after the robbery, three going to Florida and the remaining three hovering about Georgia."

J. C. Walton, cashier of the Tenth street bank, and J. W. McGaughey, manager of the community store of the King Hardware company in that district, both positively identified the two former federal prisoners as being members of the bandit gang. Forest Products important producer of wooden boxes, furniture and fixtures, caskets and coffins, cooperage, excelsior, baskets and willowware. It is also noted for its wood preserving plants and turned and carved woods. Pine comprises Georgia's main timber crop, this wood showing more than $5 per cent of lumber cut in this state.

Interesting data on production of forest products in Georgia, showing the state's rank in the various phases of forest industries, were contained in a pamphlet recently prepared by the state forestry department. Among other things, the pamphlet person has not yet been determined, it was learned Wednesday afternoon, following the signing of a court order Tuesday revoking his parole and necessitating his serving three years in the federal penitentiary on an old charge of violating the Harvison

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST

This new high point in Saturday Evening Post circulation maintains and increases its leadership in the magazine field.

This circulation expresses the preference of American periodical readers. It is not artificially stimulated. There are no subscriptions in arrears, no installment-payment subscriptions, no premium, cut-rate, clubbing, guessing or prize-contest offers for readers.

The growth of THE SATURDAY EVENING POST has been slow, steady and sure, because its policies are rooted in the best traditions of the past and are projected forward in an effort to help realize an ever stronger and sounder America. These policies are:

Higher standards in business and just treatment of business by government; fair play with other nations; self-protective immigration policies; expert conservation of national resources; extension of national parks and the protection of wild game; the wider spread of effective agencies for higher education and better health; clear and sensible discussions of the major questions of national and international importance as they develop from month to month, and the visualization of these questions, not separately, but in their relation to one another and as parts of a whole.

THE SATURDAY EVENING POST keeps its feet on the ground and its eyes forward without Editorial priggishness, economic pinkness or apologetic Americanism.

A bill to confer the congressional medal of honor on him for his record his destroying enemy planes has just been passed by the house and sent to the senate. An effort will be made in that house for passage so that the measure may be sent to the president during the remaining few days of the congressional session.

Rickenbacker was awarded the distinguished service cross for attacking an enemy plane while first lieutenant of the 94th aero squadrom. After a vigorous fight in which he followed his foe into German territory he succeeded in shooting him down. His success in bringing down other enemy planes won for him seven oak leaf-clusters, in addition to the cross.

The simple mixture of glycerin, buckthorn bark, etc. (known as Adlerika.), has a most surprising DOU-BLE action. It acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel (most medicines act on lower bowel only) and removes foul matter that poisoned the system for months. It clears GAS and sourness from the stomach and bowels, bringing INSTANT relief from stomach and sick bringing INSTANT relief from stomach and sick bringing wonderful relief. At leading druggists. see merit and devotion in the public service be given the largest possible opportunity to function.

The direct knowledge Washington has of Mr. Mitchell's qualities arises from his presence here for nearly four years as solicitor general, to which office he was appointed by President Coolidge in 1925.

In that post Mr. Mitchell has quietly and industriously fulfilled the duties of legal representative of the government in litigation before the supreme court and elsewhere, involving the most important legal questions that arise almost anywhere, and tions that arise almost anywhere, and involving enormous material issues

Abundant Precedent.

Abundant Precedent.

For placing a democrat in a republican cabinet there is abundant precedent, if Mr. Hoover should feel any need of justification by precedent. Roosevelt did it in naming the democratic Luke E. Wright, of Tennessee, to be secretary of war. William H. Taft did it in naming the democratic Jacob M. Dickinson, of Tennessee and Illinois, for the same office.

The outstanding precedent was the case of Walter Q. Gresham.

Gresham as a republican had held case of Walter Q. Gresham.

Gresham as a republican had held a federal judgeship under Republican President Grant and two cabinet posts under Republican President Arthur.

He came close to getting the republican nomination for the presidency in 1888.

Some time ago the supreme court of these United States relieved the railroads of all responsibility for crossing accidents.

The decision is logical and sensible, as all law should be, for the train has an established track and schedule, well known to the public, time was called and we had to hurry and the automobile is an invader appearing without warning.

If necessary, the driver of the automobile must stop and leave his vehicle to investigate, for he uses the crossing only by sufferance and his rights end where they conflict with the right of the locomotive. A similar logic and common sense must prompt the court's decision against drivers who use the left side of the highway, if ever a decision is asked.

Each driver has the legal and moral right to use one-half of the when the bell rang and we knocked highway—the right half—but his rights end and he becomes an inoff work for the day. For fear no

It is the common practice of all drivers, when their way is blocked by a slower vehicle, to pull over to the left side of the road and pass it.

They are within their rights if the way is clear; but they use the left side of the road by courtesy only, as the automobile uses the railway crossing, and they are without any right at all if an approaching car needs that side of the highway.

Under all circumstances, the driver turns to the left at his own side of the road—usually in an effort to pass a slower car. This most prolific cause of homicide will be removed when the law regards a car's presence on the wrong side of the road in the event of accident as conclusive evidence of criminal carelessness.

The Viennese composer, Ernst Krenek, has produced an odd sample of ultra-modern music in the form of an opera, which he calls "Jonny Spielt Auf," a recent production at the Metropolitan. It concerns the adventures of a jazz musician, Jonny, and a valuable violin which he steals from a famous artist, and the scenes flit from the Alps to the corridor of a hotel, a railroad station, and various other locales, in quick succession.

The melodies of the work are well adapted to the libretto, for which the composer is also responsible. The selections to be heard comprise such fragments of "Johnny Steps Out" as "Triumph Song" and the wild finale from the opera.

Where the Bell System's Profit Goes

THERE is in effect but one profit paid by the Bell Telephone System. This profit is not large, for it is the policy of the Bell System to furnish constantly improving telephone service at the least cost to the public.

The treasury of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company receives dividends from the stock of the operating companies. It receives a payment from the operating companies for research, engineering and staff work. It receives dividends from the Western Electric Company-makers of supplies for the Bell System-and income from long distance operations.

Only one profit is taken from this money in the American Telephone' and Telegraph Company's treasury. That is the regular dividend to its stockholders-now more than 420,000 in number-which it has never missed paying since its incorporation Money beyond regular dividend requirements and a surplus for financial stability is used to give more and better telephone service to the public. This is fundamental in the policy of the company.

The Bell System accepts its responsibility to provide a nationwide telephone service as a public trust.

125 HORSEPOWER . . 85 MILES PER HOUR

A STRAIGHT EIGHT that knows no equal

This new engine is Pierce-Arrow to the heart and core. Its design is shared by no other automobile. Its performance is approached by not another eight on the market.

Designed by Pierce-Arrow, built by Pierce-Arrow, perfected by Pierce-Arrow, the lines of this engine were first laid down more than two years ago. And development has gone steadily forward since.

Meanwhile the Pierce-Arrow organization has undergone great expansion. New and bigger plans of operation were adopted-new resources added. But nothing was permitted to affect a single fine tradition of Pierce-Arrow manufacture.

The new Pierce-Arrow

Straight Eight could have been conceived and created only under such conditions as have always existed in the Pierce-Arrow plant-and nowhere else in all the automobile world.

No other manufacturer commands equal Pierce-Arrow trained skill-none employs the costly Pierce-Arrow hand-craftsmanship-without which the new Straight Eight would scarcely have been possible.

Nor are these assertions meant to be competitive or boastful. They are made with the sole idea of giving credit where it is dueto those of Pierce-Arrow whose genius and craftsmanship are responsible for the masterpiece that is present in the newest and finest of all Straight Eights.

Society's Attention Turns Today To Smith-Nunnally Wedding James W. Battle The DeKalb League of Women Voters will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the courthouse at Decatur.

Atlanta society's attention turns today to the palm-fringed shores of Florida where Miss Catherine Smith, a former popular belle of this city will wed Charles Bowie Nunnally, of Atlanta, at 11:30 o'clock this morning at the Plymouth Congregational church in Coconut Grove, fashionable suburb of Miami. Immediately after the marriage service Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lifsey, sister and brother of the bride-elect, will entertain members of the bride-attention out of town questions at a breakentertain members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a break-fast at the Biltmore Country club in Coral Gables. Among the prominent Atlantans who are in Miami to attend the wedding are Mrs. Charles Black, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCullough, Miss Jeannette Bailey, Miss Gray Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCullough, miss Jeannette Bailey, Miss Poole, Mr. and Mrs. David Black, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Inman Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Nunnally, the groom-elect's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Nunnally. Following a wedding trip to Cuba, the future Mr. and Mrs. Nunnally will return to Atlanta where they will reside at 904 Peachtree street.

The presence of a number of interesting visitors in the city is the inspiration of many delightfully informal parties scheduled for today, the group including Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Burke, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Hendrick Snydam, of New York; Mrs. Charles Stevens, of Boston, Mass.; Miss Eleanor Swain Clayton, of Asheville, N. C., and Dr. Katherine Jeanne Gallagher, of Goucher college, Baltimore, Md.

Suit for Youngsters of 4 to 10 Years

McCall

The little boy of 4 to 10 is a darling, but he's also hard on clothes! Mothers rejoice to find patterns as smart and simple as this by which they may make the great number of suits required. This pattern is particularly attractive since it has the separate jacket little boys like so well. Suits of many different types may be made from this one pattern. Linen in contrasting colors is suitable for the very little boy. Tweed is better for the boy nearer ten. Broadcloth will make up attractively in any of the four sizes, and for a best suit velvet or velveteen may be combined with a silk blouse.

Size 4 of this pattern requires 11-2

weivet or velveteen may be combined with a silk blouse.

Size 4 of this pattern requires 11-2 yards of 40-inch material for the blouse and trousers and 11-4 yards of 40-inch material for the jacket. Made of contrasting material with long sleeves and without the jacket it requires 11-8 yards of 36-inch material for the blouse and 5-8 yards of 36-inch material for the trousers.

This McCall pattern with complete instructions for making is 35c. You may order by phone or mail.

People don't stay fat in these days. Not the people who care to reduce. Not the people who seek youth and beauty, health and vigor. You can see in every circle that excess fat is disappearing fast.

One great reason lies in a discovery made some 25 years ago. Medical research found a great cause of excess fat in a deficient gland. That gland largely controls nutrition. When it is under-active, too much food goes to fat.

That discovery changed the treatment for obesity with physicians the world over.

Now You Can Reduce 2 to 4 Lbs. In a Night

Wear what you please Do what you please Take no risky medicine

Thousands of smart women have found this easy way to take off 2 to 4 pounds once or twice a week. These women take refreshing Fayro baths in the privacy of their own homes.

Fayro is the concentrate of the same natural mineral salts that make effective the waters of twenty-two hot springs of America, England and Continental Europe. For years the spas and hot springs bathing resorts have been the retreat of fair women and well-groomed men. Excess weight has been removed, skins have been made more lovely, bodies more shapely and minds brighter. The Hot Springs Are Now Brought to You

A study of the analyses of the active ingre-A study of the analyses of the active ingredients of the water from twenty-two of the most famous springs have taught us the secret of their effectiveness. You can now have all these benefits in your own bath. Merely put Fayro into your hot bath. It dissolves rapidly. You will notice and enjoy the pungent fragrance of its balsam oils and clean salts!

Then, Fayro, by opening your pores and stimulating perspiration forces lazy body cells to sweat out surplus fat and bodily poisons. Add Fayro to your bath at night and immediately you will lose from 2 to 4 pounds in an easy, refreshing and absolutely harmless man-

Results Are Immediate

Weigh yourself before and after your Fayro bath. You will find you have lost from 2 to 4 pounds. And a few nights later when you again add Fayro to your bath, you will once more reduce your weight. Soon you will be the correct weight for your height. No need to deny yourself food you really want. No need for violent exercise. No need for drugs or medicines. Merely a refreshing Fayro bath in the privacy of your own home.

I was leaving the garage when I meticed Deering of the Record, waiting as if to walk back to the house with me. He was holding up an old, rusty saw. From its condition it had not sawed a piece of wood in years.

"What do you make of that, Kennedy?" Deering passed the saw over to Craig. "Anything?"

I leaned over Kennedy's shoulder with the rest. Now I noticed that the very end of the saw, a thin, macrow saw, had been cut off straight and clean, perhaps three-eights of an lites. While the saw was old, the cut was recent. It had not time to rust, "Why was that done? What pessible reason could Rudyard have for mutiating a saw in that fashion?"

"Maphe it was done by some one line."

There was our usual babble of remarks. I looked at Craig, but obtained no insight into his real feelings, whether it was of any importance or not in his estimation. His countenance was simobile. If he had any suspicions, one would never have known it. "This is the case that puts the mist in mystery." I pouned, desperately, "At least it's misty to me."

Kennedy turned indolently. "While you were out, Walter. I thought find fine and picture of the house."

Stribling.

Stribling Outweighed.

Outweighed by ten pounds, his resovery from rib and arm ailments somewhat doubtful, Stribling put up a spectacularly courageous fight before a southern crowd, a throng of "home folks" who had come to see their fistic idol battle for high stakes, For more than half the fight, Strib was the aggressor and the more dangerous puncher. In one round, the fourth, the southerner gave the crowd fourth, the southerner gave the crowd probably its biggest thrill when he staggered his big foe with a crashing

The crowd at first seemed stunned. Its sympathies obviously were mostly with Stribling from the start, for reasons of sentiment, of youth and of sectional pride. Then there was a cheer for Sharkey but a bigger one for the gallant youth whose head was bloody and unbowed to the last.

In a slashing 10-round fight that was thrillingly close from start to finish. Sharkey had his hand lifted aloft, the victor, on the decision of Referee Lou Magnolia, of New York.

Thus leaping back along the comeback that leads toward the crown cast saide by Gene Tunney last year, Sharkey outpunched and out-boxed his southern rival in a fast finish before a crowd of close to 40,000 in the most picturesque and colorful sports spectacle the old south has ever witnessed.

Strib realized this and took the of Strib realized this and took the of-fensive, but he was facing a great counter-puncher and every time he gave one he had to take one or two. The Georgia lad was spitting blood from his wounded lip and blowing more from his nose. Sharkey was working on Stribling's wind at every opportunity and his work was clear opportunity and his work was clever. The third round was about even, Buckley, corpulent manager of the Boston Gob, smiled at Stribling's corner and passed uncomplimentary re-marks at Stribling between rounds. It was a crying shame they couldn't have made W. L. mad enough to rush the limber Lith. But Strib didn't get mad and the story continues from Stribling's mouth but he rallied to carry an offensive through three straight rounds, the fourth to the sixth. The Georgian cuffed and flailoverhand right to the temple.

But the handicap in weight, the fact that he tried and that his left arm, "Pa", Stribling later asserted, was almost useless from the effects of neuritis after the fourth roundail these took a heavy toll in the strength and fighting power of the trim and good-looking Georgian. He fought a game but losing battle from the sixth round on, severely punished by a smashing body attack, blood flowing from his mouth and his ribs a blotch of fiery red.

SOLILOOUY.

FLAMINGO PARK, Miami Beach, Fia., February 27.—Never knew fight fans were such idiots. . Came out here an hour and a half ahead of time to be sure and get a good seat and nearly all the good ones were already taken. Here I am wedged between a guy who looks like he might have a nice big yacht out on Biscayne bay and a little bird who looks like he owns a fruit stand and smells like he eats garlic three meals a day including breakfast. The guy on my right might have spent the evening on his yacht, then I would have had more room.

Hate to pay the electric bill around these diggings. With all those flood lights over the ring and the big blazes up back of the seats the juice bill must look like a copy of Jack Dempsey's income tax blank. And it didn't cost any pin money to put up this arena. Enough lumber is here to build a 100-family apartment house and it took enough carpenters at work here to throw together a fleet of schooners.

ET'S FIGHT England right now. Enough ushers here in American Legion uniform to start a right smart little war all by themselves. end. At the bell they exchanged lefts then Strib missed a left and fell into a clinch as Sharkey landed two lefts anything but stand around and exhibit those pretty uniforms. Wonder Wonder what they all do around here. Most of them haven't been doing where they will sit when the fight starts. If they show the customers to all the seats they will have to go outside themselves. Funny, isn't it?

> There's Jack Dempsey just came in. If he was fighting here tonight part of the folks would have to watch the battle from dredges on the Atlantic ocean. Wouldn't be so comfortable out there tonight either with the wind blowing like sin for no reason at all. Dempsey sure is popular, he got a bigger hand than the fighters will get when they come in. This seat is hard.

HOPE THIS fat man from the circus sitting in front of me doesn't get the urge to stand up during this scrap. If he does I will get a chiropractor's view of the melee. They say folks stand up when they get excited at a prize fight (excuse me I mean a contest, prize fights are against the law in Florida). I hope there's no truth in that rumor.

Folks around this country dress funnier than anywhere else in the world. Here comes a woman with a red dress and a green hat and a cape or wrap or whatever you call 'em that looks like a bright orange in this light. Anything for color round these parts.

NEVER was a greater variety of clothes than right here tonight. A lot of folks in evening clothes and a lot in morning clothes and more in most any kind of clothes. Just enough elothes to escape the hand of the law. This seat is still hard. Wonder when they will start these

Understand Stribling and Sharkey had a few unmentionable words this afternoon when they weighed in at the Miami Beach Kennel club. If they got mad enough then they should be able to fight pretty well tonight. Maybe they pulled this stuff for the RECKON they did? We'll know something about that later. It's about time these fights started. This seat isn't getting any softer. The papers must have told the truth for once. They said this place would be sold out tonight and it looks like the truth.

THE FIRST bout hasn't started yet and it looks full right now. But they're still crowding in, trampling over each other and over the guards. Must be they're going to sit on the ground.

Even if this fight is a flop the climate can't be blamed. It is warm enough to sit in the stands tonight without a coat and the moon is out full in a cloudless sky. The wind is blowing right briskly but that keeps down the heat that might rise from this crowd on a still night. Wish they'd bring on the fighters. This

That will be four too many at the rate they're man weighing only 100 and last round. the best of the close work. He took enough advantage at close range to take the round by a small margin.

With the ending of the eighth round Stribling's left eye was badly puffed and he was still bleeding from the mouth and nose but not badly hurt. Sharkey had not landed a solid blow except in the wind. This round saw the Lithuanian rushed to the ropes by one of Stribling's infrequent, bursts of aggressiveness but the Gob slipped a couple of punches that might have been curtain. Strib's timing was none

The Georgia boy proved that he was not through fighting when he came back to win the ninth round decisively. He rushed the Gob all over the ring and landed repeatedly to the body with rights and to the head with lefts hut only succeeded in knocking.

Who's next? It looks like a race riot. Some places they call like the lit a battle royal, but down here it's a battle blind. All the negroes it a battle royal, but down here it's a battle blind. All the negroes are blindfold, let the blows (if any) fall where they may. It's terrible but it's fun. The mob likes this sort of thing because there's no stalling and no boxing. That's over now, and it produced more fighting than may be seen during the rest of the evening. The next pair are in the ring. This seat is not so hard now. One of these fellows is named Firpo, but iitsn't the terrible Argentine Cowboy who lifted Jack Dempsey out of the ring. He looks like he trained on beefsteak and hard-boiled eggs. His tummy hangs over his trunks like one end of a pair of water wings.

THERE is another bout on. No there isn't. It's all over. Abie Bain, of New Jersey, and Red Riley, of Troy, New York, were supposed to be fighting, but Abie did all the fighting. Somebody could say something funny about Abie's Irish Rose.

Two big boys now in the ring. One of them named Fuente and the other Webb. Neither of them looks good right now. It's nearly as bad as the first number, but not quite. It couldn't be. The guy with the funny name is winning the fight. Webb is knocked out now, but he don't know it and Fuente can't convince him. The referee just stopped the bout and gave the decision to Fuente. He should have given them both the bum's rush. Sully Montgomery and Pat McCarthy are in the ring. They ought to fight in kiddie cars-they're both in their second childhood. Sully has had so many fights by instinct. The same type of instinct that makes a puppy turn around three times before he lies down. Whoever wins is wrong. Pat McCarthy won by default.

Flamingo Park. Miami Beach, Fla.. February 27.—The capacity crowd that gathered for the Young Stribling-Jack Sharkey fight were given plenty of thrills by the preliminary bouts and the battle royal that preceded the main event. Knockouts featured the long string of preliminaries.

Getting its first actual thrill, the crowd saw a knockout victory, scored in the first preliminary by Charley Pond, of Fort Worth, known to the ring as the Texas Ranger. He floored a bigger rival. Jof Newberry, of Asbury, N. J., for the count of 10 in the third round of a four-round match. The Chief no the Ranger mauled each other in more or less primitive style. A battle royal furnished a novelty for many of the crowd. Twelve negroes entered the ring for a fight to a finish. Each contestant being eliminated when he went down. Four fellout in short order and four more followed in the next two rounds. "If you don't fight you don't get nothing." you don't fight you don't get nothing," said the negro referee who was kept busy dodging the flying gloves to perform many of the accepted functions of the third man in the ring.

Two were summarily ejected for loafing, leaving three. The trio was reduced to a duet when two jumped on the most formidable of the three and floored him. The two survivors were rugged and lasted until the final ball.

Miami Beach, Fla., February 27.
(P)—The expert consensus, taken among ringside critics after tonight's fight, showed a big majority in agreement with the decision in Jack Sharkey's favor. The ratio was about 12 to 1.

The average of commissions on ratio was about 12 to 1.

The average of opinions on rounds also agreed substantially with the verdict of Referee Lou Magnolia in scoring six for Sharkey, three for Stribling and one even. Opinion ranged, however, from score sheets showing eight rounds to two on Sharkey, take rounds to two on Sharkey, to the scattering few who gave Stribling an edge of one or two rounds. Of 37 experts polled, 32 agreed with the decision while only five considered Stribling had won.

There is no doubt that Stribling hits hard. He showed that twice by shaking the sailor with his right, and had he fought a better planned fight had he fought a better planned fight he might have won. The way he flipped up his left instead of putting steam behind it was not enough to keep Jack away.

Despite the warnings I was forced to give Stribling. I am sure that he was not looking for a way out and that he gave all he had. It probably is true that he suffered an attrack of neuritis, as his father says, for Stribling is noted for his stamina and speed, and you could see it slipping away as the rounds passed.

Sharkey Boxed Well.
Sharkey, it seems to me, fought an excellent fight. He boxed well, and switched his attack from head to body with good judgment. At no time did he really hurt the southerner with any loing effective work. Certainly by his bouts with Tom Heeney and Johnny Risko, and was even better than in his last bout with K. O. Christner.

Anyone who questions Jack's ability to take it must have formed a different opinion tonight. The wallop that Stribling landed in the fourth, and another almost as hard later in the fight, would have dazed most men. Those punches did shake the sailor for an instant, but he recovered so quickly that W. L. had no chance to take advantage of them.

In my opinion there was no ques-

Turning Point For Georgian

Macon Scrapper Sends Bostonian to His Knees With Hard Right in First.

BY GRANTLAND RICE. ' iging punch by either side, Jack Sharkey, of Boston, crowded Young Strib-ling, of Georgia, out of the heavy-weight parade tonight as close upon 40,000 millionaires, celebrities, and fight fans looked on under a southern moon. These 40,000 spectators paid in the neighborhood of $400,000 to see Sharkey's superior weight and strength pull him through after the fourth round.

For a big part of the fight the two the waving palms outside the arena, rushing into more clinches than there are breaking waves in the surf of Miami Beach. This was a thrill in the entire fight. There wasn't even a think the continuous surface to the surface of the throb or an incident calculated to make the human pulse jump loose from its moorings. Sharkey won five rounds by a shade, Sharkey won five rounds by a shade. Stribling won two and the other three were even. There was little to share as they tugged and hadded and clinched along the route, missing most of their effective punches by at least a foot. The story of the fight was the amazing crowd from everywhere in America, north and south, east and west, rich man and poor man, a crowd that for the greater part sat silently in the warm winds and looked in vain for rousing action that might lead to some form of drama worth talking about later on. But there was no drama here tonight. Not a spark, No drama outside of the fact that 40.000 people were willing to pay out $400,000 for an evening s party much milder than many of or most of the parties thrown around Miami and Miami Beach all the week.

with a heavy southern backing, got away nicely in the first round and held his lead up through a fourth by a narrow shade. But from then on the slim and slender young southerner began to weaken and lose his pace. Sharkey's fast and busy left, a left that kept tapping and plugging at Stribling's nose and mouth, broke up the Georgian's attack and threw him of balance.

This left of Sharkey had no steam behind it. It had little force, but it had enough stuff to keep Stribling's nose bleeding and to cut it had enough stuff to keep Stribling's nose bleeding and to cut his mouth, starting a crimson stream that trickled, steadily round after round. Again, in the ninth, Stribling unleashed his right and, although Sharkey rolled with the punch, his knees sagged a little.

It was evident at the beginning of the bout that Stribling hoped to win with his right, and he continually looked for an opening for it. I believe this was rather poor judgment, as he apparently could reach Sharkey with his long left when he tried to do so.

Despite continuous rains, the many admirers of Richard Dix are enjoying his latest technicolor sound picture, "Redskin," which is playing at the Howard this week. Acclaimed as this popular star's best opus, "Redskin" tells a stirring tale of America's Indians, depicting in fascinating and real colors the tribal customs and costumes of these people. On the stage Louie Lowry and his merry musical men are offering "Oh, Pshah," introducing Art Dickson, the Gould girls and the Francis trio.

Chicago. February 27 .- (P)-Wheat met with heavy selling today and a met with heavy selling today and a consequent sharp break in wheat prices led also to a lively downturn in corn. Word was received that country holders of wheat in Canada were liquidating and there was much notice taken of announcement from Washington that severe adverse conditions the domestic winter wheat crop has apparently escaped any wide. 28 hang & Aroo. 5s. 43.

tions the domestic winter wheat crophas apparently escaped any wide-spread serious harm.

Closing quotations on wheat were weak 2.3-Sc to 2.3-4c net lower. Corn finished 1c to 1.3-4c off, oats 1.4e@ 3-Sc to 1.1-Sc down and provisions varying from 15c decline to 5c advance.

A downward trend was evident in the wheat market right from the beginning. Initial downturns were associated with the fact that Liverpool wheat quotations had failed to respond to yesterday's advance here. Subsequently, selling pressure was increased by the government weekly crop report from Washington which indicated that although the influence of winter weather on the main producing domestic wheat area is still indefinite, the present outlook seems free from signs that would point to more than average amount of winter killing.

Lowest prices of the day though in the wheat market here came only after a sinking speel in the wheat trade at Winnipeg had made itself manifest. With the export basis for United States No. 2 hard wheat six cents to eight cents above an export parly at the Gulf of Mexico, the future delivery market here showed a decided lack of power to rally, and the close was at almost the day's bottom level.

Corn was firm early but the traders who at that stage were buyers turned to the selling side later when the wheat market tumbled down grade in earnest. Corn prices, however, received good support on the decline that ensued, and the Chicago cash corn trading basis was steady.

corn trading basis was steady.

Oats as well as corn were rather firm early, but eased downward.

Provisions were steady by upturns in the value of hogs.

CREDIT SITUATION DEVELOPS UNEASY TREND IN CURB MARKET TRADING

Public Utility, Aviation Shares Show Strength

New York, February 27.—(P)—Uncassiness over the credit situation with the approach of month-end settlements and March 15 income tax payments was reflected in the irregular price movement in today's curb market. Total sales again fell below 1,000,000 shares despite the revival of bullish activity on the "big board."

Public utility and aviation issues

American & Foreign Power warrants fell back more than 4 points to 85 1-8 against a recent high of 113 1-2.

American & Foreign Power warrants fell back more than 4 points to 85 1-8 against a recent high of 113 1-2.

American & Foreign Power warrants fell back more than 4 points to 85 1-8 against a recent high of 113 1-2.

Aviation Corporation of America, moved into new high ground and National Aviation and Transcontinental Aria Transport were again under sell-ing pressure.

Gold Seal Electric was heavily pools on the basis of merger and favorable dividend rumors.

Electric Bond & Share ran uß 11 points to 265 but lost 2 1-2 points of its gain. United Gas Improvement closed 9 5-8 points higher at 185. Commonwealth Edison jumped 11 points on a few sales. American Gas & Electric, Electric Investors, Northeastern Power, Northern States Power A and some of the other recent favorites closed 1 to 3 points higher.

Ing. Novedel, Newton Steel, Horn & Co., and Blax Knox, which ordinarily change hands in small lots, advanced 4 to 13 points, some of them attaining new peak prices.

Dominion Stores dropped nearly 7 points to a new 1929 low at 153 1-8 but recovered a small part of its loss. Marion Steel Shovel also sank to a new low and the Hart Parr issues and U. S. Foil B fell back rather sharp-year to the store of the store

Public utility and aviation issues shared the leadership of the market. Oils, which displayed several points of strength yesterday, again lapsed into dullness. A few specialties were marked up to new high fecords by pools on the basis of merger and favorable dividend rumors.

RECORD FOR USE OF PORK AND LARD BROKEN LAST YEAR

Chicago, February 27 .- (P)-All ecords for consumption of pork and lard in the United States were broken last year, while the consumption of beef was the lowest on record, the Institute of American Meat Packers announced. Ten and one-half billion pounds pork and lard were consumed, as compared with 10,240,000,000 pounds in 1924, the year of greatest previous consumption, the statement said.

The opening was steady at unchanged prices to an advance of five points on overnight buying orders, which were probably promoted by continued favorable reports from the cotton ued favorable reports from the cotton goods trade and complaints of delayed farm work in the south.

The initial demand was quite readily supplied by realizing and southern selling, part of which was attributed to hedging. Prices eased off to 20.32 for March and 19.71 for the new October contract, making net declines of about 3 to 8 points on active positions. Offerings were comparatively light and the dip appeared to bring in a little more buying. Demand became more active as prices turned came more active as prices turned upward again during the middle of the day. The best prices were reached in the late trading talk of an increase, commission house demand for the day were more active.

tonsiderable demand for December revidence from Wall street or comna evidence from Wall street or com-mission house sources sent December up to 20.00 and January to 20.04, or about 20 points net higher. This buying was supposed to be due to the talk of delayed farm work, recent re-ports of reduced fertilizer sales and a tendency in some quarters to scale down ideas of the probable increase in acrease.

New York. February 27.—(P)—
With the call money market failing to develop the severe stringency widely expected, the stock market moved upward on a broader front today than at any time since the reaction two weeks ago, spurred on by several favorable industrial developments.
Call money renewed at 8 per cent and held at the rate all day, as adequate funds, attracted by yesterday's 9 per cent rate made their appearance.

U. S. STEEL STOCK PLAN UP TO STOCKHOLDERS New York. February 27.—(A)—A plan to add $496,679.000 to the capital stock of the United States Steel corporation and wipe out its bonded debt today awaited ratification of Myron C. Taylor, chief financial officer of the corporation, announced the general outline of the plan after it had been approved at a meeting of the board of directors yesterday. Details of the program, the amount to be sold, subscription price and ratio to present holdings are to be fixed later.

The plan calls for an increase of the common stock, par value $100, from 7.533,210 to 12,500,000 shares. Regarding the plan to retire out-Regarding the plan to retire out-standing bonds, a statement said: "Funds received from the sale to stockholders of the shares of common stock thus to be offered, together with such portion as the directors may then decide upon employing of the cash resources of the corporation in hand representing surplus and other reserves, will be employed to redeem by purchase and to call for retirement all or part of the bonds of the United States Steel corporation as the directors may elect, of which there were outstanding December 31, 1928, $134.-$30,000 of 50-year 5 per cent gold bonds of 1951 and $136,555,000 10 60-year 5 per cent bonds of 1953."

A LOAN ON THE "DISAPPEARING MORTGAGE PLAN" MAKES IT EASY FOR YOU.

1. You steadily reduce the principal with a monthly payment that is less than rent. You do not have the total principal failing due in one lump sum, which may be difficult to meet. 3. You are doing business with a company backed by 34 years' experience and $25,000,000 assets. 4. Unlimited funds are available NOW-Therefore, you receive your loan promptly. $10 per month for each $1,000 borrowed repays both principal and interest until loan is paid in full.
 No more refinancing costs.
